

Fenway Park

Fenway Park is home to the famous Boston Red Sox and is considered to be one of the most well know sports venues in the world. During its centennial year in 2012, the park was added to the National Register of Historic Places. Active duty military are eligible for standing room only tickets to Red Sox games played at Fenway. Tickets are $10 each for the active-duty member and one guest. These tickets are available at Gate B, one hour prior to the game start time. Besides catching a Red Sox base ball game here, there are a number of other things to do. Take a thrilling one hour walking tour of Fenway Park, which are led by experience tour guides. Catch a concert featuring a famous performer. Artists have been holding concerts at the park since 1973. Or check out a hockey game during Frozen Fenway. This is an annual series of collegiate and amateur games featuring a number of ice hockey teams from local and regional colleges and universities. For more information, visit www.redsox.com

New England Sports

- New England Patriots – Major league Football team that plays at Gillette Stadium in nearby Foxborough, MA. Six time SuperBowl Champions, the most recent being in 2019.
- Boston Bruins – National Hockey League team that plays at TD Garden in Boston. Winner of six Stanley Cups, the latest being in 2011.
- Boston Celtics – National Basketball Association team that plays at TD Garden in Boston. Winner of 17 NBA titles, with their last win being in 2008.
- Boston Red Sox – Major League Baseball team that plays at historical Fenway Park. Winner of 9 World Series titles, the last being in 2018.

Last updated 11/22

Boston, Massachusetts

Boston, the capital city of Massachusetts, is one of the oldest cities in the United States. It is the largest city in New England, covering approximately 48 square miles. Located approximately an hour and a half north of Newport RI, Boston has a number of attractions and historical sites to see.

The information was compiled by:

Skywalk Observatory

- Located in the Prudential Center, the Skywalk Observatory offers a breathtaking 360-degree panoramic view of the Greater Boston area. Being 52 floors above the city, you have a perfect view of a number of landmarks, including Fenway Park, the Charles River, Harvard University and many more. Active-duty military and dependents receive free admission with a valid ID. For more information, visit www.skywalkboston.com.

New England Aquarium

The New England Aquarium is home to over 20,000 animals from 600 different species. In addition to the number of exhibits throughout the aquarium, there are live animal presentations every day, which help bring visitors up close with the animals. From April to October, the aquarium hosts a whale watch cruise. Most trips will last 3 to 4 hours through the Stellwagen Bank National Marine Sanctuary, which is home to a wide diversity of large whales. Active-duty U.S. military and their dependents receive discounted admission at the Aquarium with valid ID (both active and dependents must have their IDs). Adults receive $10 off admission and children receive $5 off. For more information, visit www.neaq.org

Museum of Science

Located along the Charles River, The Museum of Science has over 700 interactive exhibits and features a number of live presentations and shows. It is also home to over 100 animals which have been rescued and rehabilitated. Active duty members receive free admission with valid military ID. For more information, visit www.mos.org

Museum of Fine Arts

The Museum of Fine Arts is the fourth largest in the U.S. and contains nearly a half million works of art. Visitors have the opportunity to experience art from ancient Egypt to contemporary, special exhibitions and educational programs. Active duty military personnel and their families receive free admission to the museum with a valid ID. For more information, visit www.mfa.org

Boston Duck Tours

Tour Boston on a World War II style amphibious landing vehicle, known as a “DUCK”. Your “conDUCKtor” will narrate your sightseeing tour by a number of landmarks including TD Banknorth Garden, Boston Common, the Prudential Tower, and many more. Tours depart from three locations – the Prudential Center, Museum of Science and the New England Aquarium. Active-duty military will receive discounted admission tickets for themselves and one dependent with a valid ID. For more information, visit www.bostonducktours.com

USS Constitution

The USS Constitution Museum is located just across from where the USS Constitution is docked. The museum provides a hands-on environment to ensure the history will continue to live on and inspire people. While the USS Constitution Museum does not charge a set admission, donations are accepted and greatly appreciated. For more information, visit www.usconstitutionmuseum.org

Freedom Trail Walking Tour

The Freedom Trail is a 2.5 mile walk that leads you to 16 historically significant sites. The sites range from museums to burying grounds. You’ll learn about the history of the American Revolution which began right in Boston! In addition to the Freedom Trail tour, offered year round, there are a number of special tours offered throughout the year. These tours include the Walk Into History Tour, Lantern Tour, Pirates and Patriots Tour, Historic Pub Crawl, African-American Patriots Tour and Historic Holiday Stroll. For more information, visit www.thefreedomtrail.org

Boston Children’s Museum

The Boston Children’s Museum is the second oldest children’s museum in the United States. Its purpose is to educate young children, while providing a fun and interactive experience. While offering a number of exhibits, the museum also developed a number of programs and activities for the visitors to participate in. Active duty personnel or one of their dependents will receive free admission with a valid military ID. For more information, visit www.bostonchildrensmuseum.org